Le Nouveau Corpus d'Amsterdam / The New Corpus of Amsterdam
LICENSE AGREEMENT

The author of the original plain text files of the Corpus d'Amsterdam (hereafter "CA") is Anthonij Dees, Free University of Amsterdam. The files were provided by Pieter van Reenen, Free University of Amsterdam.

The "Nouveau Corpus d'Amsterdam" (hereafter "NCA") was revised, lemmatized, and edited by Pierre Kunstmann (University of Ottawa) and Achim Stein (University of Stuttgart). This project was partly funded by the Alexander von Humboldt-Stiftung and the Canadian Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC/CRSH).

Note that separate license conditions may apply to other software contained in this distribution. Please read the corresponding license files.

The "twic" corpus search software and the tools for the processing of the original corpus files (conversion, XML markup, lemmatization) as well as the parameter file for Old French part of speech tagging are property of Achim Stein, University of Stuttgart.

This license agreement entitles you to use corpus data, personally or in the organisation you are responsible for, free of charge and on the terms and conditions stated here.

You may not use any file or part of file of this distribution for non-scientific or commercial purposes,
You may not redistribute any file or part of file of this distribution,
You may not modify the original CA data (plain text files),
You may not modify the NCA text files (XML files) and/or lexicon files without the permission of the editors.

In no event will the authors or editors be liable to the user for damages, including any lost profits or other special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use or inability to use the software or for any claim by any other party.
