Activating your student account

For your studies and to use the digital services of the TIK you have to activate your student account ("st-account"). Your applicant-account will be deleted soon. Only with the st-account you can register for exams.

1. Visit C@MPUS

Visit www.campus.uni-stuttgart.de and enter the access data of your applicant account. Click on "Login".

2. Select and confirm user profile

Select the user profile "Basis Anwender" and click "Continue" when the following message appears.
3. Activation

Click on "Student Account Activation". Write down the user ID for your st-account. You will need the user ID for any future logins. Now click on "Activate your ST-Account". You will then be redirected to SIAM.

4. Set password

Enter the st-username you noted down before and choose a password that matches the displayed requirements. Click on "Aktivieren". The activation is confirmed in the next window. Please note that in individual cases the activation of the account for C@MPUS, ILIAS etc. can be delayed by up to 24 hours.

Status: October 2020