

University of Stuttgart
Germany

For international degree students and doctoral students in the final stage of their degree

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) provides funds for scholarships, which can be tendered by the University of Stuttgart (subject to an annual confirmation of the contract by the DAAD). The scholarship line is directed towards highly committed international degree and doctoral students who will earn their degree from the University of Stuttgart. The aim is to support students who voluntarily commit themselves to improving the situation of international students at the University of Stuttgart.

Who can apply?

International students (Bildungsausländer/innen)

- who will earn their degree from the University of Stuttgart (BSc, MSc or PhD)
- who will be in their third semester at the earliest when the scholarship starts (application therefore possible during the second semester at the earliest)
- who have received good grades so far
- who stand out through their voluntary commitment in an international or intercultural context at the University of Stuttgart
- who do not receive a full scholarship from a German or foreign organization at the same time

Applications can be handed in at the International Office twice a year by the deadlines January 31 and June 30. The scholarship can be awarded for a minimum of two and a maximum period of six months.

University of Stuttgart
Germany

For international degree students and doctoral students
in the final stage of their degree

To apply, please submit the following documents:

 Properly completed and signed application form only available in person from your contact person at the International Office, see:

<https://www.student.unistuttgart.de/beratung/international/team/>

- CV including a (passport-sized) photo
- Current certificate of enrollment
- Current transcript of records of your studies at the University of Stuttgart
- Reference letter of a professor and one of an academic staff member of your study course confirming your suitability for the studies and the scholarship
- A written documentation about your voluntary activities at the University of Stuttgart and other organizations, if any (including certifications) and your own ideas about improving the situation of international students at the University of Stuttgart (included in application form)
- Complete and current proof of income e.g. printouts of all bank accounts of the last three months, pay slips (voluntary)
- Current job contracts with current salary slips (voluntary)
- Current scholarship letters / contracts (voluntary)

Please note:

There is no legal entitlement for a scholarship. All submitted documents or any information provided may be considered in the selection process for the awarding of scholarships. Usually, candidates will be informed about the results of the selection within four to six weeks after the application deadlines.