World Citizenship
3rd International Colloquium

Hosted by Center for Higher Education and Lifelong Learning at the University of Stuttgart

28th - 30th June, 2017 | Stuttgart, Germany

Wednesday, 28th June

13:00 - 14:00  Registration

14:00 - 14:15  Greeting
               Prof. Dr. Cathleen Kantner, University of Stuttgart

14:15 - 14:30  Welcome
               Dr. Edith Kröber, University of Stuttgart

14:30 - 16:00  University Challenge: Revisiting the ‘right to have rights’ and ‘fool’s freedom’
               Dr. Séamus Ó Tuama, University College Cork (IE)

16:00 - 16:30  Coffee break

16:30 - 18:00  World Citizen School (WCS)
               Michael Wihlenda, University of Tübingen (DE)

18:00  Closing and Get-together
Thursday, 29th June

09:00 - 10:30
Basic Trust and a World Ethos
Dr. Jonathan Keir, University of Tübingen (DE)

10:30 - 11:00
Coffee break

11:00 - 12:30
The vision of an open, lively and connected society—sculpture
Sebastian Schmidt, Aachen (DE)

12:30 - 14:00
Lunch

14:00 - 15:30
Including ‘difference’ in higher education
Josephine Finn, University of Maynooth (IE)

15:30 - 16:00
Coffee break

16:00 - 17:30
Supporting active engagement of elder people with the University of Third Age
Dr. Zsuzsa Kovács, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest (HU)

18:00
Conference dinner at Generationenhaus Heslach

Evening entertainment by Marko Scholz, Berlin

Friday, 30th June

09:00 - 10:30
Urban Identity vs. Globalisation: Situation in Serbia, Subotica experience
Viktorija Aladžić, PhD, University of Novi Sad (RS)

10:30 - 11:00
Coffee break

11:00 - 12:30
What’s a University for? Critical thinking, equity and the fate of liberal democracy
Dr. Michael Reder, Connecticut College, New London (USA)

12:30 - 13:00
Outlook International Colloquium 2018

13:00 - 14:00
Take-Away-Lunch

Venue

Generationenhaus Heslach
Gebrüder-Schmid-Weg 13
70199 Stuttgart

Center for Higher Education and Lifelong Learning colloquium@zlw.uni-stuttgart.de

University of Stuttgart
Germany